NEWS of WORLD MARKETS

WAR ISSUES LEAD RALLY
ON STOCKS; RAILS GAIN

New York, April 12.—A considerable part of the setback recorded in the final hour of yesterday's stock market was recovered at the outset of today's trading. War issues led the rally, especially equipments and shipbuilding. Gains of about a point were scored by Marine preferred, Budding Locomotive, American Car and Drifters. High-grade rails made special improvement, but pressure against steel and copper developed soon after the opening. Liberty bonds were steady. Following its usual custom, the market came almost to a standstill during the noon hour. The few changes were mainly toward higher levels, however. Anaconda, Texas Company and Harvester preferred showing gains of 1 to 1 1/4 points.

FOR SETTLING OF IRISH QUESTION

Sir Horace Plunkett, in Report of Late Convention, Sets Forth Basis of Agreement.

London, April 12.—The Irish convention laid the foundation for an agreement on the Irish question, which was unprecedented in history, Sir Horace Plunkett, chairman of the convention, says in a letter, accompanying the report of the convention, which he states, "We had every reason to believe the government contemplated immediate legislation upon the results of our labor," says Sir Horace. "The work of an Irish settlement, it is now felt, admits of no further postponement. In the dominions and the United States, as well as the allied countries, all the Irish question is a disturbing factor, both as regards war effort and peace aims."

After every possibility of an agreement had been explored, Sir Horace writes, he was instructed to draft a report which would be a basis for the convention's proceedings, with a statement for the government's information of the conclusions adopted unanimously, or by a majority. This draft of the report was adopted by a majority.

Sir Horace adds that the public has been provided with no majority report in the sense of a second statement in favor of concessions upon which the majority agreed, but has been left to gather from the narrative of the proceedings what the contents of such report would have been. The issue of minority reports by the Ulster unionists and a minority of nationalists has minimized the agreement reached and emphasized the disagreement.

In his letter, which is addressed to President Lloyd George, the chairman says the customs question became one of the vital points and that upon a decision regarding it depended the extent of an agreement which could be reached. The nationalists made a strong case for such fiscal powers and were able to prove that a considerable number of the leading commercial men in the United States, Canada and America, a majority of the nationalists and of the southern unionists agreed, in order that a parliament might be established at once, to postpone the decision in regard to control of the customs. The nationalists were prepared to agree to free trade with England, but the southern unionists joined the Ulster unionists in opposing a separate system of customs control.
